

Global Studies & Political Economy

199: Independent Study and Research: GLOBAL, PE

299: Individual Study: GLOBAL, PE

For students interested in conducting independent study on a topic of their own choosing under the supervision of a faculty sponsor. Enrollment requires the prior consent of the faculty sponsor. Independent Study and Research does not fulfill upper-division course requirements in the major. Variable units: 1–4. Pass/no pass grading option.

Note: No more than 4 units of 197 and 199 courses may be taken in a semester. No more than 16 units total can count toward graduation. Exceptions may be made by the Dean of Letters and Science.

Instructions: Complete this form, obtain a faculty sponsor's signature, attach your proposal (see below) and email it to the Global Studies or Political Economy advisors' attention. Open to declared majors only.

Prerequisites: Completion of 60 or more units with a minimum GPA of 2.0. Consent of faculty sponsor.

Student Proposal:

- 1) Students must obtain the support and signature of a faculty sponsor on this form and
- 2) Attach a detailed proposal which includes: objectives or purpose of study, methods and procedures, frequency of meeting with faculty sponsor, form of reporting study, and criteria for final evaluation. Students must show academic background that is adequate for the proposed study.

Upon Completion:

Final papers are due to the faculty sponsor no later than the last day of instruction (not the last day of finals). It is the student's responsibility to ensure that the faculty sponsor submits the grade no later than the last day of finals.
